The Friends of Booker T. Washington National Monument (FBTWNM) invite you to the celebration of National Park Week and to honor Booker T. Washington at our 8th annual Legacy Dinner on Saturday evening April 27, 2019 from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at Trinity Ecumenical Parish, 40 Lakemount Drive, Moneta, VA. Our theme this year is “Not Your Momma’s History” featuring guest presenter Cheyney McKnight.

Cheyney McKnight is a Public Historian and Historical Interpreter who consults with and aids museums and historical sites in developing specialized programming about the African American experience within 18th and 19th century America. She has interpreted 18th, early 19th and mid-19th century slavery as a Living Historian in 26 states and has worked with over 45 historic sites. Cheyney has crafted and written over 18 tours for sites in Virginia and has written 13 specialized museum programs throughout the East Coast. She is also an experienced hearth cook and public speaker. Visit her website at: <http://www.notyourmommashistory.com/>.

Highlights:

- Musical entertainment by Kyana Waters
- Catered dinner
- Silent auction and door prizes

The Friends group was established in 2008 to support the Booker T. Washington National Monument and promote public awareness and appreciation for the legacy of Booker T. Washington. Booker was a great American educator, author, orator, and advisor to presidents of the United States. We are a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization. Our fundraising activities assist the Monument with funding for special and educational programs that are free to the public.

We invite you to join our efforts in supporting and preserving this national treasure by placing an advertisement in our 2019 Souvenir Journal and by purchasing a dinner ticket. Dinner tickets are $25 for members and $30 for non-members.

Email your digital-ready advertisement to friendsofbowa@gmail.com by March 25, 2019 or mail to the address above. Contact Lisa Lietz at (301) 704-2309 for tickets and more information.

Sincerely,
Ruby Penn, President
Sheridan Brown, Corresponding Secretary
Lisa Lietz, Recording Secretary, Program Chair
